(no membership required)

National Trade Show exposure through the AWFS® Fair, one of the largest trade shows for the woodworking industry.

Public Policy Support AWFS® membership supports paid lobbyists that advocate actively for issues affecting the woodworking industry.

Awards program Your company has the opportunity for industry recognition through the AWFS® Fair Visionary awards program for best new products in various categories.

Society of Wood Manufacturing (SWM): AWFS®'s local chapter offers networking and supports the next generation of woodworkers by coordinating SkillsUSA woodworking competitions, fundraising for local high school woodshops, and going on manufacturing plant tours.

Industry Networking Events such as the AWFS® Fair and the Woodworking Industry Conference (WIC) are great ways to meet and mingle with others in the industry.
