AWFS® Seeks Judges for “Visionary” New Product Entrees

Anaheim, March 26, 2015 - Association of Woodworking & Furnishings Suppliers (AWFS®) is looking for woodworking industry executives to judge the “Visionary” Awards. Potential judges must have a major purchasing influence with a woodworking manufacturer, possessing a strong knowledge of shop operations. Anyone with experience in plastic fabrication is also encouraged to participate in order to judge this year’s new category for Plastic Fabricating Machinery and Supplies. The voting panel will review applications prior to the Fair, in order to choose finalists and then must be available onsite, during the event, to select the winners. All interested volunteers should contact Angelo Gangone, executive vice president, AWFS® at Angelo@awfs.org.
